

Pro-Tech Fire Protection Signs Exclusive Vendor Agreement with ATAZZ Technical Services (a Woman, Minority Business Enterprise – WMBE) to Provide Voice and Data Installation Services

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Pro-Tech Industries, Inc. (OTCBB:PTCK), a leader in design-build infrastructure services, has announced an exclusive vendor agreement with ATAZZ Technical Services (a Woman, Minority, Owned small business enterprise - WMBE) to provide voice and data installation services to the public and private sector community. ATAZZ Technical Services was founded in March of 2006 and performs design/installation of structured cabling services through an outsourced labor model. ATAZZ is one of the preferred existing contractors for some of the nation's largest Telecommunication carriers and will sub-contract the structured cabling services to Pro-Tech Fire Protection.

“The vendor agreement opens the door of sub-contracting opportunity for Pro-Tech Fire Protection not only with the national telecommunication companies; but other public and private sector structured cabling opportunities where ATAZZ’s WMBE status is utilized.”

Patrick Quarry, Director of Business Development for Telecommunications, states, “The vendor agreement opens the door of sub-contracting opportunity for Pro-Tech Fire Protection not only with the national telecommunication companies; but other public and private sector structured cabling opportunities where ATAZZ’s WMBE status is utilized.”

Don Gordon, CEO of Pro-Tech Industries, added, “This new agreement will also open up opportunities for our electrical, fire protection and flooring units by leveraging the WMBE status of ATAZZ.”
